 4. Lemon Browns role in the story is one of a wise man teaching a young boy a life lesson. Brown has experienced many positive and negative situations. He was a famous blues singer, then his son died during the war and he also lost his wife. He teaches Greg to appreciate what he has and that every man has a treasure.
 5. Thinking skill: Cause and Effect/Inferring
Lemon Brown thinks Greg is ok for a youngster because he sees that Greg learned about what is important in life. After hearing Lemons story, Greg finally understands that treasure doesn't have to be gold or money.
