

פתרונות לבגרות באנגלית

MODULE C

A NEW PROBLEM: TOO MANY CYCLISTS IN THE CITY

- 1) What do we learn in lines 1-3?
 - iii) Cycling is better than driving a car in a city.
- 2) Copenhagen is mentioned in lines 4-11 to show (-).
 - ii) what happens when the number of cyclists grow.
- 3) What makes Copenhagen a "bike-friendly" city?

ANSWER: It/The city has wide bicycle lanes which only cyclists are permitted to use.
- 4) According to lines 4-18, how is the use of bicycle lanes in New York different from their use in Copenhagen?

COMPLETE THE SENTENCE.
In New York (both) pedestrians and cyclists are allowed to use the same lanes.
- 5) Stopping at a red light mentioned in line 14 as an example of a traffic law that (-).
 - i) cyclists often ignore.
- 6) What has happened to some pedestrians in New York?

ANSWER: They were injured and one was even killed.
- 7) How will New York solve its cycling problems?
 - i) There will be lanes only for cyclists.
 - v) Cyclists will use the lanes only at certain times.
- 8) According to lines 24-31, the method used by the mayor of Copenhagen is friendlier than the method used by (-).
 - ii) worried cyclists in New York.
- 9) Why do some cyclists get a reward from the mayor of Copenhagen?

ANSWER: Because they obey the law and respect others.
- 10) What does the writer of this report say about the attempt to solve the problem of cyclists' behavior?
 - iii) the attempts made are not enough.

11) In line 31 the writer mentions "the benefits of cycling". Give ONE of these benefits. Take your answer from another paragraph.

ANSWER: Reducing the number of cars// Fewer traffic jams// More parking places// Less pollution.